Institutional Distinctiveness

Uplifting Rural Students through Technical Education

The main ambition of our institute is to furnish an opportunity to the rural students of this area especially the rural girl students to pursue the higher education for their development and progress of the family. This distinctiveness of supporting rural masses in achieving their dreams of leading a good quality life with purpose is unique to our institute.

This initiative not only helps rural people meet their aspirations, but more importantly serves as a strong 'growth engine' for the country by tapping huge unexplored talent and energy of rural youth. Also, this distinctiveness is in sync with the institute's Vision and Mission of serving rural community through engineering education.

The rural students have some basic issues regarding use of English for communication, apprehensions of living and dealing with the cities, etc. The college atmosphere has been created to enable the rural students to hone and exhibit their engineering skills at par with the industrial expectations. Special attention is paid towards developing communication skills through

- Personalized contact of faculty with the students under the mentorship system, whereby a student is assigned a faculty mentor during their first year.
- Continuous practice sessions in the English laboratory, delivery of seminars etc. are an integral part of the curriculum that helps students in their pursuit of competing with the world.
- To further instil confidence in the students, various programmes are run in the institute.
- These programmes focus primarily on various cultural and technical activities including debates, quizzes, paper presentation etc.
- The events under these societies are primarily planned and conducted by the students themselves, under the guidance of faculty, which is a good mean of experiential learning.

- The students are also encouraged to participate in activities being organized at other institutes/universities to help them develop public speaking skills, a prime requisite of a contemporary engineer.
- NSS and NCC units are also established in the institute through which students get opportunity to understand and learn societal and national perspectives and requirements.
- Institute provides an opportunity for the rural youth, especially for the economically underprivileged students from the villages and provide merit scholarships for benefited students.
- Literacy rate is gradually improving in the various villages surrounding our institution.

Our institution is providing many facilities to the students to achieve their goals in a right manner. As a part of this we have started VIBA (Vaagdevi incubation Business Accelerator) for the students to implement their innovative ideas in to real time projects. Students are encouraged to register themselves in the professional bodies of engineering/technology like IEEE, CSI and IIC etc. so that they will be exposed to the engineering environment and culture. It will create a good ambience to the students to get activated in their branch of engineering and will be benefitted professionally. They will no doubt getting more aware of the latest things that are taking place in the subject. Further, their leadership qualities, and the quality of working-together will also be improved while participating in such events.

Our institution also implemented Mentoring programme called Dial Your Village (DYV) with NRI candidates.

Implementation of DYV (DIAL YOUR VILLAGE) "Step-Up" Mentoring Program

Dial Your Village (DYV) is a non-profit organization of a group of NRI's committed to the empowerment of communities by supporting in the areas of education, health and livelihoods. DYV's overall objective is to foster holistic, just and sustainable development among communities and individuals, particularly among them marginalized sections and villages. For this purpose, DYV draws on the resources of like-minded individuals, organizations and governments in local communities and establishes learning and working networks for the effective crafting and delivery of its services.

Especially rural students face additional challenge with communication skills, which compounds their ability and lowers their confidence levels. A systematic approach to guide these students right from their 1st year of graduation will prepare them for their future prospects after graduation, making the transition seamless and smooth.

Assigning A Mentor – DYV will identify and assign a faculty as a mentor from each department. Every mentor, depending upon the availability of their time can mentor up to 5 students. Having multiple students will give better perspective to mentor. Mentor will interact with student every week for an hour.

Assessment - Assessment of student's passion, aspirations, goals and challenges will be done by Mentor.

Goal Setting - Most of the students may not have clarity on the goals and aspiration. They may be vague or may have misconception. One needs to clear those misconceptions, give them clarity and assist in "goal setting". Mentor will help student to identify the "goals"

Career Steps – Mentor will support student to define steps towards reaching the goal which includes taking additional courses, certifications, participating in Conferences, connecting to experts, short term training programs during summer vacation and internships etc.

Mentor also will help the students in Resume preparation, Interview preparation and to improve their interpersonal skills.

Apart from this, our students are also encouraged to visit various agriculture fields in nearby villages. Recently our college conducted "Agri conclave Finale" field trip to get the statements of farmer problems. During the trip students visited three villages viz., Ramachandrapuram, Gavicharla and Ashalapally to identify the problems faced by farmers in their fields. In this programme students had face to face interaction with farmers and visited various crops in fields. Students created awareness among the farmers on smart technologies which are being implemented in the irrigation system. In the fields, students have identified some problems and are on their way to provide technical solutions by using IOT and latest technology sensors.

The programme is very useful to the students to implement low cost innovative projects. Our college gives technical and financial support to the students to implement real time projects which are helpful to the farmers.

Field trips are especially attracting the rural students to create technical solution to the problems that are being faced by their parents in the agriculture.

"Step-Up" Mentoring Program

About DYV

Dial Your Village Inc. (DYV) is a not-for-profit organization committed to the empowerment of communities by supporting in the areas of education, health and livelihoods.

DYV's overall objective is to foster holistic, just and sustainable development among communities and individuals, particularly among the marginalized sections and villages.

For this purpose, DYV draws on the resources of like-minded individuals, organizations and governments in local communities and establishes learning and working networks for the effective crafting and delivery of its services.

In Telangana, specifically in Hyderabad, we have many Engineering colleges producing thousands of graduates. In terms of training and employability, the news is not very exciting. Due to the bad implementation of "tuition fee reimbursement" program, we are seeing a huge pool of substandard graduates coming into the market. Rural students with Telugu medium background have additional challenge of communication skills, which compounds their ability and lowers the confidence levels.

Even for a good student who studied very well, there is a gap of at least 10% to make them ready for career opportunities. A systematic approach to mentoring of students from 3rd year onwards will prepare them ahead of the graduation, making the transition seamless and smooth.

The problem

- Every child needs an adult to lean on and learn from, during their formative years.
- 1 in 3 young people will grow up without having a mentor
- Imagine a student deciding to join a stream at +2 stage.
- Which college is good? Where to find a suitable hostel? How to get a scholarship? What are rewarding extra-curricular activities?
- So many questions at every stage of career steps? Who will guide?
- What life-changing decisions have you made in your early age?

What A Mentor Can Offer?

- First, earful listening: Listen.. Listen.. Listen
- Develop Connection; Build trust;
- Show an array of possibilities and opportunities, but never insist
- Hang on Long-Term, May be lifelong!
- Always Positive!
- skills, attitudes, and activity ideas
- Expectations and approach; no "reform" mindset
- Take the time to build the relationship
- Become a trusted friend (understand age, background, culture differences)
- Always maintain that trust
- Give your mentee voice and choice in deciding on activities
- Praise and encouragement help build your mentee's self-esteem
- Let your mentee have much of the control over what the two of you talk about—and how you talk about it.

"Step-Up" Mentoring Program

About DYV

Dial Your Village Inc. (DYV) is a not-for-profit organization committed to the empowerment of communities by supporting in the areas of education, health and livelihoods.

DYV's overall objective is to foster holistic, just and sustainable development among communities and individuals, particularly among the marginalized sections and villages.

For this purpose, DYV draws on the resources of like-minded individuals, organizations and governments in local communities and establishes learning and working networks for the effective crafting and delivery of its services.

The problem

- Every child needs an adult to lean on and learn from, during their formative years.
- 1 in 3 young people will grow up without having a mentor
- Imagine a student deciding to join a stream at +2 stage.
- Which college is good? Where to find a suitable hostel? How to get a scholarship? What are rewarding extra-curricular activities?
- So many questions at every stage of career steps? Who will guide?
- What life-changing decisions have you made in your early age?

In Telangana, specifically in Hyderabad, we have many Engineering colleges producing thousands of graduates. In terms of training and employability, the news is not very exciting. Due to the bad implementation of "tuition fee reimbursement" program, we are seeing a huge pool of substandard graduates coming into the market. Rural students with Telugu medium background have additional challenge of communication skills, which compounds their ability and lowers the confidence levels.

Even for a good student who studied very well, there is a gap of at least 10% to make them ready for career opportunities. A systematic approach to mentoring of students from 3rd year onwards will prepare them ahead of the graduation, making the transition seamless and smooth.

What A Mentor Can Offer?

- First, earful listening; Listen.. Listen.. Listen
- Develop Connection; Build trust;
- Show an array of possibilities and opportunities, but never insist
- Hang on Long-Term, May be lifelong!
- Always Positive!
- skills, attitudes, and activity ideas
- Expectations and approach; no "reform" mindset
- Take the time to build the relationship
- Become a trusted friend (understand age, background, culture differences)
- Always maintain that trust
- Give your mentee voice and choice in deciding on activities
- Praise and encouragement help build your mentee's self-esteem
- Let your mentee have much of the control over what the two of you talk about—and how you talk about it.

How this gap can be filled?

1. Assigning A Mentor – DYV will identify and assign a mentor. Every mentor, depending the availability of time can mentor 1-5 students. Having multiple students will give better perspective to mentor. Mentor will interact with student every week for an hour.
2. Assessment - Assessment of student's passion, aspirations, goals and challenges will be done by Mentor.
3. Goal Setting - Most of the students may not have clarity on the goals and aspiration. They may be vague or may have misconception. One needs to clear those misconoeptions, give them clarity and assist in "goal setting". Mentor will help student to identify the "goals"
4. Career Steps – Mentor will support student to define steps towards reaching the goal which included taking additional courses, certifications, participating in Conferences, connecting to experts, summer programs and internships etc
5. Resume Preparation
6. Interview Preparation
7. Soft skills

REPORT ON

PRINCIPLES OF SUCCESS

- Vaagdevi Engineering College Students of CSE and ECE have attended the session at 7:00 AM.
- Total number of participants : 46
- In this session all the mentor Subhash spoke to students about principles of Success.
- Sir spoke to students that Failure is about perspective there is no such thing unless you deem it that. Successful people understand that failure is an illusion created inside their minds, and they perform mental alchemy to construct an empowering reality instead.
- When successful people chase after a goal, two things can happen: They achieve their desired result or they get feedback.
- Falling short of your goal isn't a failure, it's a lesson you can use for next time.
